LI.

And for the compleating of the whole sum charged upon the same; and to the end the aforesaid sums charged upon the several and respective Countyes,, Cityes, Burroughs, Towns and places may be equally and indifferently Assessed, according to the true intent of this Act, and the money duely Collected and true accompt thereof made, the said Assessors are hereby required to deliver one Copy of their respective Assessments fairly written and subscribed by them unto the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners or any two or more of them are hereby ordered and required to signe and seal two Duplicates of the said Assessments, and the one of them to deliver or cause to be delivered to one or more honest and responsible person or persons to be Subcollector or Subcollectors, which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to

to nominate and appoint for each Parish or place with Warrant to the said Subcollector or Subcollectors to Collect the said Assessment, payable as aforesaid; so as the said several sums may be paid in to the said Receiver General, and by them into the Receipt of his Majesties Exchequer at the respective times aforesaid; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to deliberate or cause to be delibered the other of the said Duplicates of each Parish or place to the Receiver General of each County, City, Town or place respectively, to be by him the said Receiver General transmitted into the Kings Remembrancers Office in the Exchequer, which the said Receiver General is required to perform accordingly.

And be it further Enacted and Declared, That the said Commissioners in their respective Divisions or Hundreds, or any two or more of them shall and are hereby empowered to nominate and appoint under their hands and seals an honest, able and responsible person to be head Collector, unto whom the moneys received by the Subcollectors within the Division or Hundred, shall from time to time be duely paid; And the said head collector is hereby required upon the receipt thereof, to pay the same forthwith to the Receiver General of each County respectively.

And be it further Enacted and Declared, That the particular Collectors and Sub-collectors are hereby required to pay in all and every the sums so received by them to the said Receivers General aforesaid, who are hereby required forthwith to transmit, or cause to be paid the moneys by them received into the Receipt of his Majesties Exchequer. And the said Lord Treasurer is hereby Authorized to allow the said Receiver General of each County City and Town respectively, in case he hath returned up as aforesaid a Duplicate of the Assessment of each Parish or Place in County, City, or Town, for which he is appointed Receiver General, a Salary for his pains, not exceeding one penny in the pound, upon the clearing of his Account, which Duplicate so to be returned into the Kings Remembrancers Office in the Exchequer is intended to contain no more then the sums in gross to be collected by each Subcollector, and the several names of the said Subcollectors.

LII.

And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, that the Subcollectors of each Parish or place which shall be appointed by vertue of this Act, shall upon the collection of the whole sum appointed to be collected by them, and payment thereof as is hereby and before appointed, have and receive for their pains in collecting and paying the moneys one penny in the pound which the said several Head-Collectors, are hereby authorized to pay unto them, and the several Head-collectors which shall be appointed by vertue of this Act, shall upon

on the payment of the whole summe due from their Hundred or Division to the Receiver-General of each County, have and receive for their pains in receiving and paying the said moneys, one peny in the pound, which each Receiver-General is hereby authorised to pay and allow unto them accordingly; and also upon the receipt of the whole Assessment of the County, City or Town, for which he is appointed Receiver-General, in case he hath received the several Duplicates of each Parish or place therein, and not otherwise, to allow and pay according to such warrant as shall be in that behalf given by the said Commissioners, or any three of them, one peny in the pound for the Commissioners Clerks, for their pains in fair writing the Assessments, Duplicates and Copies.

Provided that no Head-collectors shall be appointed for any City or Town, which is by this Act particularly charged with the payment of any summe towards the Assessment hereby to be levied; and for which a Receiver-General is to be appointed, excepting within the City of London.

And be it Enacted and declared, That if any person shall refuse or neglect to pay any summe of money, whereat he shall be rated or assessed, That then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Collectors, Subcollectors, or any of them, who are hereby Authorised and required thereunto, to leby the summe assessed by distress and sale of the goods of such persons so refusing or neglecting to pay, deducting the summe assessed and reasonable charges of distraining, and restore the oberplus to the Owner thereof. And to break open in the day-time any house, and upon warrant under the hands and seals of two or more of the said Commissioners, any Chest, Trunk or Box, or other things, where any such goods are, and to call to their assistance the Constables, Tythingmen and headboroughs within the Counties, Cities, Towns or places, where any refusal, neglect or resistance shall be made: which said Officers and Forces are hereby required to be aiding and assisting in the premises, as they will answer the contrary at their perils. And if any question or difference happen upon taking of such distresses between the parties distressed or distrained, the same shall be ended and determined by the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them.

And if any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to pay his or their Assessment, and convey his or their goods, or other personal Estate, whereby the summe of money so assessed cannot be levied according to this Act, then the respective Commissioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby authorized to imprison the person (except a Peer or Peers of this Realm) and him and them in prison to detain and keep, keep, until the money so assessed and the charges for the bringing in the same be paid and satisfied, and no longer. LIII.

And the several and respective Tenants or Tenant of all Houses and Lands, which shall be rated by vertue of this Act, are hereby required and authorized to pay such summe or summes of money as shall be rated upon such House or Lands; and to deduct out of the rent so much of the said rates as in respect of the said rents of every such house and lands the Landlord should or ought to pay and bear. And the said Landlords both mediate and immediate, according to their respective Interests, are hereby required to allow such deductions and payments upon the receipt of the residue of the rents.

And it is Enacted and declared, That every Tenant paying the said Assessment, shall be acquitted and discharged for so much money as the said Assessment shall amount unto, as if the same had been actually paid unto such person or persons unto whom his rents should have been due and payable.

And if any difference shall arise between Landlord and Tenant, or any other concerning the said rates, the said several Commissioners, or any two or more of them in their several divisions, shall and have hereby power to settle the same, as they shall think fit. And if any person or persons shall find him or themselves agrieved in that the Assessors have over-rated him or them, and shall within six days after demand made of the summe of money assessed on him or them, complain to two or more Commissioners, whereof one of the Commissioners who signed or allowed his or their Assessment, to be one; The said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, shall have, and have hereby power within twelve days after the demand of the Assessment as aforesaid, to relieve such person or persons, and to charge the same on such other person or persons, as they shall see cause; and in case the proportions set by this Act upon all and every the respective Counties, Cities, Towns and Places, shall not be fully assessed, levied and paid, according to the true meaning thereof, or that if any of the said Assessments shall be rated and imposed upon any person not being of ability to pay the same, or upon any empty or void house or land, where the same cannot be collected or levied; or that through any wilfulness, negligence or mistake, or accident, the said Assessment charged upon each County, City, Town or place, by vertue of this Act, happens not to be paid to the Receiver-General of the respective Counties, as in this Act is directed, that then in all and every such cases the several and respective Commissioners, Assessors and Collectors aforesaid, and every of them respectively, are hereby authorised and required to assess or reassess, or the lessening or abatement of the full sum by this Act appointed to be taxed, levied, and paid, but that the same be fully assessed, taxed, levied, collected and paid in the several and respective Counties, Cities and Towns aforesaid, in such manner and form, and to such uses as is herein before mentioned and declared. And that the several and respective Commissioners and every of them shall from time to time give a true and perfect account of all their doings and proceedings in the execution of this Act to the said Lord Treasurer, or to other such persons as his Majesty shall appoint.

Prohibited always, and be it hereby Enacted and declared, That in case the way or manner of assessing by a Pound-rate shall prove any way prejudicial or obstructive to the said speedy bringing in of the Assessment, or any part thereof appointed by this Act, that then and in all such cases the respective Commissioners, or any two of them, are hereby authorized to order and direct their respective Assessors, who are hereby required to proceed accordingly, to assess the respective Sums charged on the the respective Counties, Cities and Burroughs, Towns and places mentioned in this Act, according to the most just and usual way of Rates held and practised in such Counties, Cities, Burroughs, Towns and places respectively, Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof contained in any booke notwithstanding.

Provided also, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to alter, change, determine, or make void any Contracts, Covenants, or Agreements whatsoever between the Landlord and Tenant touching the payment of Taxes or Assessments, any thing herein before mentioned to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided also, and be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforesaid, That for the avoiding of all obstructions and delays in collecting the sums by this Act to be rated and assessed, all Places, Constablewicks, Divisions and Allotments which have used to be rated and assessed, shall pay and be assessed in such County, Hundred, Rape, and Clapentake, as the same hath heretofore usually been assessed in, and not elsewhere.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Plaint, LVII. Suit, or Information shall be commenced or prosecuted against any person or persons for what he or they shall do in pursuance or in execution of this Act, such person or persons so sued in any Court whatsoever shall or may plead the General issue Not guilty: And upon any Issue joyned may give this Act and the special matter in Evidence; And if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become Non suit or forbear further prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if lectors or Head-collectors charge, against his Majesty, his heirs and Successors, for the summe or sums of money so acquitted.

Prohibited alwayes, and be it further Enacted, That in case any lands or houses in any Parish, Place or Constablewick shall lie unoccupied, and no distresses can be found on the same, by reason whereof the said Parish, Place or Constablewick are forced to pay and make good the tax assessed upon such lands lying unoccupied, That then it shall and may be lawful at any time after for the Collectors, Constable, or Tythingman of the said Parish, Place or Constablewick for the time being, to enter and distrain upon the said lands and houses when there shall be any distress thereupon to be found. And the distress and distresses being the proper goods of the Owner, or any claiming any Estate, interest or profit under him, if not redeemed within four days by payment of the Tax and charge of the distress, to sell, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners of such distress. And the said Collector, Constable or Tythingman is hereby enjoined to distribute the money raised by the said distress or sale thereof proportionably to the parties who contributed to the tax of the said unoccupied lands.

Prohibited alwayes, and be it Enacted, that where any wood-lands shall be assessed, and no distress can be had, that in such case such non-payment thereof, rendering the overplus to the Owner, if any be.

And whereas the County of Middlesex and City of Westminster are raised in the Monethly Assessment, by reason of the new buildings lately erected; And that Offices are made chargeable towards the payment of such Assessment: To the end that an equal rate may be made and imposed upon the several Divisions, Parishes and Hamlets within the said County and City, Be it Enacted by this present Parliament, and by the authority thereof, That the said Commissioners appointed for the said County and City of Westminster, or any three of them, shall, if they shall think it fit, cause two or three of the honest and able Inhabitants in the several and respective Parishes, Townships and Places within the said County and City to be named and appointed Assessors, who (or any two of them) are to ascertain and rate the yearly value and profits of all Offices belonging to the Courts of Westminster, and other Offices chargeable by this Act, towards the payment of the said summe set upon the said County and City, And all Townships, Parishes and Places, for which they be appointed Assessors; and to return the same to the said Commissioners, or to such person or persons as shall be appointed to receive the same: which said Assessors are to deliver in their several Surveys perfected and subscribed by them, unto
